BASIC-ABSTRACT:

NOVELTY - The Chinese medicine of the present invention has Chinese redbud bark as main component and is prepared in different forms, including soaked liquid, bolus, capsule and pellet. During its preparation, dry Chinese redbud bark, ginseng, red sage, myrrh, reticulate millettia and other eight Chinese medicinal materials are dispensed. Compared with Western medicine with similar functions, the Chinese medicine has the advantages of less toxic side effect, no addition, short treatment period, high curative rate, etc.
